

Riverside
Friday June 1881

Dear Sir

I have just reached home, and write merely to have my own mind satisfied: I do not yet even know the day of the month.

Have you found or heard of your Southern M.S.? I hope you have on every account. It never came to my house or hands, I am sure.

I trust that you are well and will continue so. I am quite hearty in health, but far advanced, as you may be aware, in my 92nd year.
I have every reasonable comfort about me, and the dearest daughter to keep all in order, especially

Yours very sincerely
S. Payne Collier
